Abstract

Original Research

Reality consists of two parts, existence and morality. In passing to the reality, human intellect explores both existence and morality. The Guides from God, with their teaches and guidance, put the intellect in both directions in the right and fast path. Limited intellect and involved with imperfect and fallible experiences, with the help of the complete and infallible knowledge of the Guides from God, find it possible to have a close connection with the reality of existence and morality. This article discusses the part of moral reality and shows how infallible Guides of God acquaint men with the origin of morality by their action and behaviors, and bring them to a safe and eternal world. The actions of Guides of God can be named moral argument by a criterion and moral miracle by another.

Keywords

moral miracle, moral action, origin of existence, origin of morality, moral world.
